

Organizational Structure Statement

Our organization is structured to ensure optimal efficiency, clear communication, and effective decision-making. The executive team leads the organization, followed by various departments including Operations, Human Resources, Finance, Marketing, and IT. Each department is managed by a department head who reports directly to the executive team. This hierarchical structure allows for specialization within departments while promoting collaboration organization-wide.

Additional Comments: