

Standardized Test Policy Flexibility

In response to changing educational circumstances, the institution has adopted a flexible standardized test policy for the upcoming admissions cycle. Applicants may choose whether or not to submit standardized test scores as part of their application.

- Test-optional policy for SAT and ACT scores
- Holistic review process for all applicants
- Additional materials encouraged: essays, portfolios, recommendations
- International applicants may be subject to separate English proficiency requirements

Comments or Questions:

Submit