

Waiver of Application for Asylum or Withholding

I, [REDACTED], understand that I have the right to apply for asylum or withholding of removal under the laws of the United States. I have been provided the opportunity to seek such relief and have had the consequences of waiving this right explained to me in a language I understand.

After considering my options, I hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive my right to apply for asylum or withholding of removal. I have not been coerced or threatened to make this waiver, and I understand the decision I am making.
