Subject: Motion for Relief from J-1 Foreign Residency Rule

Dear Sir or Madam,

I, [Applicantâ€™s Name], respectfully submit this motion seeking relief from the two-year foreign residency requirement associated with my J-1 Exchange Visitor visa, pursuant to section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Background:

I entered the United States on a J-1 visa on [Date of Entry], under the sponsorship of [Sponsoring Organization]. My program focused on [brief description of program/purpose]. My SEVIS number is [SEVIS Number], and case number is [Case Number, if known].

Grounds for Relief:

[Explain your reasons for requesting a waiver, e.g., hardship to U.S. citizen spouse/child, fear of persecution, no objection statement from home country, etc.]

Supporting Documents:

I have attached all necessary supporting documentation, including [list documents such as affidavit of hardship, country statement, letters of support, etc.].

Conclusion:

For the reasons stated above, I respectfully request that the Department grant this motion for a waiver of the two-year foreign residency requirement.

Sincerely,
