

Confidentiality Clauses Overview

Summary

This document provides an overview of common confidentiality clauses typically found in contracts and agreements. These clauses outline the obligations of parties to protect sensitive information from unauthorized disclosure.

Sample Confidentiality Clause

"The Recipient agrees not to disclose, publish, or disseminate any Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Discloser. The Recipient shall protect all Confidential Information with the same degree of care as it uses to protect its own confidential information, but in no event with less than reasonable care."

Purpose

- To protect trade secrets and proprietary information
- To outline responsibilities regarding data handling
- To limit liability for breaches of confidentiality

Comments

Add your comments:

Submit